

Amy - waitress

Amy loves her job and rates it 9.2 out of 10. She loves making coffee, but hates cleaning up at the end of the day. She has the choice of when and how to do the tasks in her job. When it is quieter, she spends her time talking to customers and happily drinking coffee, what else would a woman want to do?!

It is a peasant environment, although it can be quite stressful on a busy day. The job has changed a lot in the past with the internet and in the future it will probably change with technology.
