

Eitan Friedman is a jewellery master, which lives at Fremantle, WA. He is an active man, who also do paintings in his studio, leads workshops. Before there was a garden on a place of his studio. He decided to keep the garden and have a studio, so plantes are growing in a roof of the studio in big buckets.

The space of his studio is narrow and he can reach any point by moving on a chair with wheels.